Cayuga Lake National Bank Honors 54 Students at First Bee You Awards Event
Lansing Student Wins $1,000 Grand Prize

UNION SPRINGS, NY, April 25, 2023- On April 18, Cayuga Lake National Bank (CLNB), in partnership with ESPN Ithaca Radio, recognized 54 local students as recipients of the first annual Bee You Awards at Wells College. The winners of the brand-new awards were nominated by educators, family members, and other community individuals for their exceptional acts of leadership, kindness, and community service. Lansing Central School District Junior Aurora Jones was randomly selected as the grand prize winner of $1,000. The Bee You Awards were created to highlight students from Lansing Central School District, Union Springs School District, Moravia Central School District, and Southern Cayuga School District who have positively impacted their peers and community.

Kelly Wade, President & CEO of CLNB, stated, "We shared an incredible evening with these wonderful youth leaders and their families. I am thrilled with the positive response from the schools and communities for our very first Bee You Award. Thank you to all of our partners and supporters, those who took the time to nominate these incredible students, and those who joined us last week." Wade added, "We are so extremely proud of these students. It was a pleasure recognizing this outstanding group and I look forward to next year's event!"

Vizella Media, which owns ESPN Ithaca radio, President & Publisher Todd Mallinson said, "We are really proud of our partnership with CLNB and the Bee You Awards. It has been a pleasure recognizing these incredible students and the positive qualities they demonstrate at school and in their communities." Mallinson added, "On behalf of the ESPN Ithaca team, congratulations to these exceptional students."
